

COME HERE BY THE WATERS

1. Come here by the wa - ters, come bring us your
 2. Your pro - mise en - dur - ing will fol - low her*
 3. Bless us with your pres - ence, your Word, and your
 4. We praise you and thank you for all you pro - child. We'll call on God's Spir - it, so days, and lead to a life filled with power, that we may be faith - ful in vide, for bless - ings and grac - es that lov - ing and wild. These peo - ple and ser - vice and praise. You'll bless her* and ev - 'ry new hour. Let church be a reach far and wide. Praise Fa - ther, praise par - ents will speak their firm vow. This keep her* and al - ways be there, through place that is brim - ming with love, and Son, and the Spir - it di - vine, both child full of bless - ing be - longs to Christ now.

 life's man - y chang - es you'll watch her* with care.
 bless these dear child - ren with grace from a - bove.
 now and for - ev - er, and far be - yond time.

* or 'him' or 'their'

Music: William James Kirkpatrick (1838-1921) harm. Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872-1958)
 Words: Richard L. Floyd, 2015

Tune: Cradle Song 11.11.11.11